Portland Country Dance Community · September / October 1995

SPECIAL EVENTS

Before there can be Labor Day, first there must be labor. Or at least exercise. September's first contradance will be September 1st's PCDC First Friday Dance. Bay Area regular Eric Black is always a popular visitor to our upper-left corner of the country, with his smooth contra teaching and calling. Our own Rose City Aces will share the glory. 8 PM at Multnomah Art Center.

The Artquake festival runs all that weekend, and what better way to usher it out than a public contradance? PCDC is sponsoring just such an event on Monday, September 4. Eric Weberg will organize the masses, to the strains of Sue Songer, Lanny Martin and Todd Silverstein. The participation of some experienced dancers will make Eric's job a lot easier! Pioneer Courthouse Square, around 1:30 PM.

If "going home from a dance" conjures images of I-5 South or I-205, then you will be particularly happy to hear about the brand-new End of the Trail Contradance. The brainchild of caller Ben Allbrandt and the musicians of Twisted Shamrock, this new series happens on the second Friday of each month, in Oregon City's Pioneer Community Center (5th & Washington Streets). Be there for the debut, September 8, and tell your grandchildren that you were there. 8 PM.

The incredibly popular PCDC Family Dance returns on Saturday, September 9. Rick Meyers will be leading humans of all ages through dances both fun and bizarre. 5 PM at MAC, with a potluck dinner at 7 PM.

That same evening, radiant caller Mike Richardson will make the trek down from Seattle for the PCDC Second Saturday Dance. This will be a historic night, so pay attention: Cats Cradle's farewell concert! That's right, though still young in people years, the Cats are ready to retire. Don't miss their final meow! 8 PM at MAC.

Two series of Dance Classes begin the weekend of September 9, at Susan's Social Dance Studio, 610 SW 12th Street. Lindy Hop Swing will be taught by Marc Green & Mary McLeod, for six Saturdays, 7-9 PM—call Mary (503/753-9234) to sign up. Zydeco dance will be taught by Deb Seeck, for four Sundays, 7-8 PM—call Deb (503/585-9426) to register.

The next weekend, September 15-17, most of Portland's dance action will take place at Suttle Lake, near Sisters. If you don't already know all about our Fall Dance & Music Weekend then probably you don't want to hear about it now. Still, there are often a few last-minute openings, so for a very good time call the camp registrar, Norman Hale (503/236-8062).

Camp comes to town in two post-Suttle events. First, featured caller Lisa Greenleaf will hold a Callers' Workshop on Sunday, September 17. 8 PM at Mary Devlin's—call her for directions and details at 503/236-8062.

Next, Lisa and superstar band Uncle Gizmo will lead a Special Post-Suttle Lake Dance on Monday, September 18. We're talking mega-energy here. Yes, even on a Monday night! 8 PM at MAC.

October 6's PCDC First Friday Dance will renew that energy level, as formerly-Spokane's-but-temporarily-Seattle's Dave Smith joins forces with still-Spokane's-the-last-we-heard Traveling Lundbergs. Dave's not going to be staying in the Northwest too much longer, so you definitely want to catch him while he's hot. 8 PM at MAC.

It's October, so it's time to welcome back the PCDC First Saturday English Country Dance. If you've just learned about this stylish dance form at Suttle Lake, then you're more than ready to join the crowd, October 7. Dick Lewis will be leading the dances, to the musical accompaniment of Kathleen Towers, Beverly Stafford and Dave Goldman. 8 PM at Fulton Community Center.

Cats Cradle may be gone, but there are other Cats in town to keep the First Saturday Cats & Dogs Dance alive and howling. On October 7 it will be the Stray Cats who back up caller Woody Lane. (Stay tuned for further fungible felines in the even-numbered months to come.) 8 PM at St. Andrew's Church.

We hope that Friday the 13th will bring good luck for the new End of the Trail Contradance. A short hop to Oregon City and you can be part of that luck as Ben Allbrandt and Twisted Shamrock continue their some-place-other-than-Southwest-Portland series. 8 PM at the Pioneer Community Center.

Portland English Country Ball

Portland's 3rd Annual English Country Ball will be held the evening of Saturday, November 11. The dances will be led by Nan Evans and Dick Lewis, with music provided by Full Circle (George Penk, Heather Pinney & Fred Nussbaum).

A tremendous success in its first two years, Portland's Ball draws fantastic dancers from as far away as Seattle and the San Francisco Bay Area. Many of the dancers dress in period costumes, making the event as much a visual spectacle as it is a delight to the ears and body.

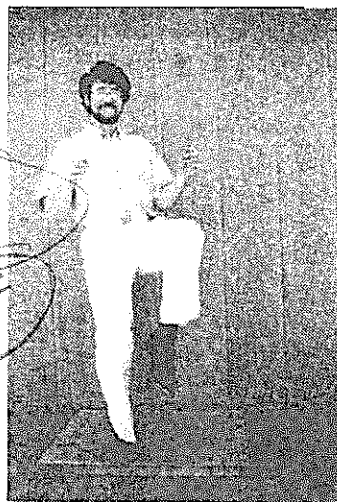

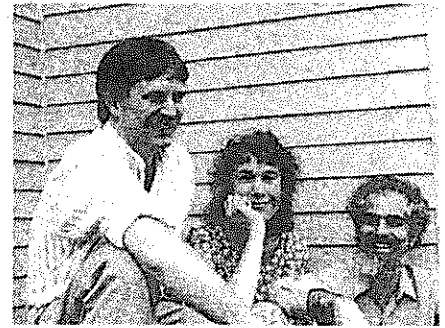

Many of the evening's dances will be reviewed at the afternoon pre-Ball workshop. Other opportunities for learning and practicing the figures are the PCDC First Saturday English Country Dance and the Second Friday English Country Dance of October and November.

Call Dave or Paula Hamlin (503/691-1758), or e-mail Paula (phamlin@lazerquick.com) for more information. Registration forms will also be available at most contradances and English Country dances.

Full Circle, Dan Compton, Woody Lane at Suttle Lake Weekend

PCDC fills out this year's Fall Weekend at Suttle Lake with some of Oregon's finest performers. (Camp is September 15-17; there may still be some spaces left—check with the camp registrar, Norman Hale, 503 /236-8062.)

Full Circle is George Penk, Heather Pinney, and Fred Nussbaum. They've been delighting both Contra and English Country dancers throughout the Northwest since 1987. George mixes the sublime with the gutsy on fiddle, while Heather divides her time between piano and heavenly fiddle harmonies. Fred, on cello, alternates between resonant counter-melodies and holding the bottom together. At Suttle, Full Circle will play for the English Country Dance sessions.

Woody Lane learned both clogging and calling in West Virginia in the late '70's. Since moving to Roseburg five years ago, he has developed quite the local reputation as a caller. Woody's clogging teams over the past 15 years have included the Limberjacks, the Heart & Sole Cloggers, the Barking Frog Cloggers, and the Kickapoo Cloggers. Woody will teach a pair of clogging workshops (and just maybe a team-naming class!) at Suttle Lake.

Dan Compton's fiddling focuses on the traditional music of Ireland, Quebec, and Appalachia. After a number of trips to Ireland, he has developed a fondness for the fiddle styles of Counties Clare and Kerry, as well as for playing music into the wee hours (which proclivities have paid off in more ways than one: Dan met his wife Fran at 4 am at a music festival in Donegal). Dan has played with numerous Northwest bands, currently including Jigsaw and the Boomchuck String Quartet. At Suttle, he'll be mainly in Appalachian mode for Woody's clogging classes.

PCDC July Board Meeting Minutes (digest). Sue and Michael have been working on a contradance at Artquake, but the Artquake organizers haven't yet committed. Jeff Weber, Pamela, and Paula will organize a style workshop for both waltz and contra, to be held October 14 during the day. Suttle Lake is shaping up fine. The summer Family Dance had minimal attendance; the series will continue in September, but there won't be future summer dances. The Portland English Ball organizers requested and received a forgivable loan of $300. Marianne filled in the new board members on the intricacies and nuances of staffing our regular dances. Pamela has prepared a new membership form. The PCDC English Country Dance season will run from October through June, with an increased variety of musicians.

Next Meeting: August 31, 6:30 PM at Pamela's.
