November is for Contra Lovers

By Meg Green

CERN has postponed the inaugural run of its Large Hadron Collider, originally scheduled for November of 2007, until the spring. What does this mean to you? No mini black holes (which have only a minuscule chance of devouring the entire earth in 7 minutes) will be created this month. Celebrate! And what better way to celebrate than to dance? In addition to our regular Saturday dances, PCDC is sponsoring two special Wednesday dances during November, and of course Joyride will be holding its first Wednesday dance too (see article below) which means that you can go contra dancing seven times in the month of November with absolutely no fear of being sucked into the void. Wow!

On Wednesday November 14th, the dynamic Wild Asparagus returns to Portland for a dance at the Oaks Park Pavilion (400 SE Spokane St. in Sellwood). Wild Asparagus' core of Ann Percival, David Cantieni, Becky Tracy and caller George Marshall brings inspired energy to dancers all over the country. George also provides excellent instruction and calling for their New England style contras. Lesson at 7 PM, dance from 7:30-10:30. Tickets are $15 general admission, $10 PCDC members, $12 students/seniors.

On Wednesday November 28th, Celticladda comes to Fulton, with Adina Gordon as caller. About her energy as a caller Adina writes, "I teach dances clearly and quickly, maximizing dance time. As the conduit between the music and the dancers' feet, my goal is to get you dancing and get out of the way." Celticladda is Randy Miller's contra dance band, with Tom Hodgson on guitar and Eric Anderson on piano. Randy has extensive fiddling background and his playing combines sounds from his adopted state of New Hampshire with Irish and Cape Breton Celtic styles to produce his unique "New Hamptic" music. Tom hails from New York and got an early start in traditional music with David Kaynor and family in Massachusetts. Eric says he does only one thing well and that is playing piano for contra dances, an endeavor that he has pursued from North Carolina to all over the Pacific Northwest. Now, with Celticladda, Eric's powerfully sympathetic piano playing can be heard in eastern parts as well. Lesson at 7 PM, dancing from 7:30-10:30.

[Meg is a member of the Contra Committee. She is not a physicist, so please do not ask her about squarks.]

Dance On, Friends

By Eric Weberg

The Joyride first Wednesday contra dance series got off to a great start in October. The series continues on Nov. 7th with calling by Susan Petrick of Reno, Nevada. Susan called for us last year and is our first return performer to the series.

She's a warm, friendly sweetheart of a caller with all the skills she has gained from calling on the national circuit for years.

Then on December 5th we charge things up a bit. David Kaynor of Montague, Massachusetts will join the band on his blazing fiddle while Erik Weberg takes hold of the caller's microphone. It's a combination that will warm up any December evening.

Dances are held on first Wednesdays at the Polish Library Association Hall at 3832 N. Interstate Ave. in Portland, from 7:30-10 PM. For more information see <http://www.kluberg.com/Joyride.html> or call 503-246-2219.

Go Back to the Future on New Year's Eve

By Meg Green

Dig up those poodle skirts and bobby socks, find a white t-shirt and straight-leg Levis – there's going to be a Sock Hop at the Multnomah Arts Center on New Year's Eve! Just as we all start thinking about the future and what is to come in the new year, we have a neat-o chance to step back into the past. Reminiscing with us will be Mary Devlin and Calico, followed by Eric Weberg and Cascade Crossing. As always, there will be a come-one come-all dessert potluck to maintain our hoppin' energy levels, so don't forget to bring your most luscious concoction to share. Lesson for beginners at 7:30, dancing from 8 PM until after midnight. If you have retro inspiration galore, please lend a hand with decoration and set-up. To volunteer, contact: volunteer@portlandcountrydance.org.

Date: Monday, December 31st

Where: 7688 SW Capitol Highway

Time: 8 PM to past midnight

Cost: $12/general; $10/members; $8/students, seniors

PCDC Finances Look Solid

By Rick Kimball

PCDC's fiscal year ended on May 31, 2007, so it is time for the treasurer's annual report to the membership. You might remember that last fiscal year (which ended May 31, 2006) PCDC was in the red $899.13, which means we lost money. If you don't remember that, it could be because I failed to write an article for Footnotes. Well this year we finished in the black by $6,226.09. That is a $7,125 swing in the right direction. Way to go everybody! Before we get to the details, how about a little background?

Last fiscal year PCDC had a money market account, certificate of deposit, and three checking accounts. The fiscal functions of PCDC could not happen without the help of the following individuals and I want to thank them for their efforts. Janene Benfield managed the main checking account that is used for contra and family dance activity and general PCDC expenses. This year Janene has stepped down and Ed Lohr has taken on this role. Karsten Kelly manages the Northwest Passage Dance Camp checking account. Mike Lassner managed the English country dance checking account that is used for the weekly English dances and the English Ball. This year Mike has stepped down and Dave Macemon has taken on this role. The revenue and expenses that run through the three checking accounts are combined as PCDC's fiscal year proceeds and the PCDC Board reviews the combined financial statement on a quarterly basis.

At the end of this fiscal year PCDC remained on a strong financial footing with current assets of $44,983.13, and current/long term liabilities of $16,425.69. This leaves a total equity of $28,557.44.

The following data provides an overview of PCDC's profitable year. Remember, a large part of that dance expense total stays right here in the Northwest, supporting musicians, callers and venues.

Total Dance Income	$ 77,219.07
Total Dance Expenses	$ -74,983.37
Membership Income	$ 5,096.00
Footnotes Expense	$ -1,533.81
Donations and Interest	$ 2,297.47
Operating Expenses	$ -1,869.27
<hr/>
Total Income	$ 84,612.54
Total Expenses	$ -78,386.45
Year's Profit	$ 6,226.09

Board Meeting Minutes

Submitted by G. Tim Gojio

July 23, 2007. Present: K. Appleberry, D. Blanchard, R. Kimball, J. Wiser, I. Zifcak. Jody recorded the minutes.

Contra Committee update from Kim. • John will not be able to do sound for Megaband next year, but Warren Argo & Alan Roberts will. • The 2nd annual Oregon Dance Fair, scheduled for the last weekend of September will be expanded from last year, with 55 workshops at 4 halls. A contra with Mary Devlin calling is scheduled for Sunday. • PCDC has joined the Portland Dance Consortium. • And finally, the Contra Committee will begin creating a framework for the Urban Dance Weekend Committee using the NW Passage Committee as a model. The Contra Committee was authorized to move to contract level with Hotpoint, Norse Hall and a caller.

English Committee update from Isabelle. • PCDC's Urban Dance Camp will be the same weekend as the Cascadia English Country Dance Weekend in Seattle. • A motion was passed to approve Dave Macemon as the new treasurer for the English Dance Committee and to add him as a signatory on the bank account.

Rick reported that PCDC looks strong financially and shows a profit of approximately $7000 for the past year.

David reported that he and Sue Songer have been working with the N.W. Folk Alliance in Vancouver on the possibility of holding a contra at their November 2-4 event.

The board discussed the possibility of purchasing fans for the Fulton Community Center. This has been under discussion for years, but now that Parks & Rec. seems more committed to Fulton, it might be time for us to make that commitment. Dwindraft fans as at Norse Hall may be more effective than extraction fans. The board would appreciate input from a heating/cooling engineer.

August 20, 2007. Present: K. Appleberry, D. Blanchard, G. Quast, J. Wiser, I. Zifcak. Jody recorded the minutes.

Contra Committee update from Kim. • Expenditure of $70 each for 2 musicians and a caller and $125 for sound for the Oregon Dance Fair (9/28-30) was authorized. • Woody Lane will lead a callers' workshop on 9/29. • The board reviewed the Contra Committee's promotion fund and confirmed that additional cost for the Halloween dance can come out of the $500 in the budget for contra promotion. • The Portland Rain Dance is the working title of PCDC's Urban Dance Camp to be held the first weekend of May at Norse Hall. We have a commitment from Hotpoint as our featured band and are working towards getting Susan Kevra as caller.

English Committee update from Isabelle. • The ball is set for 11/2-4; mailers have been sent out. Isabelle related the usual concerns regarding the Oaks Park venue. The English Committee discussed renting risers for the stage but concluded they would be too expensive. • A PCDC-English country dance business checking account has been opened at Washington Mutual.

Gerhardt reported that he will continue talking with Waltz Eclectic about the possibility of special joint events such as were held in the past.

The 2007 NW Folk Alliance conference will be held 11/2-4 in Vancouver, WA. PCDC will assist if the NWFA wants to hold a contra dance but will not be an official participant in the conference.

September 17, 2007. Present: K. Appleberry, D. Blanchard, T. Gojio, G. Quast, J. Wiser, I. Zifcak.

Contra committee update. • Kim reported on upcoming special dances, including the Wild Asparagus dance scheduled for 11/14 at Oaks Park as well as the New Year's Eve dance scheduled for 12/31. • He also reported that attendance over the summer was better than typical for summer and that this may be due to the expenditures from the contra innovation fund. The board approved an additional $500 for the fund.

Isabelle reported on the upcoming English Ball scheduled for 11/3 at Oaks Park.

The board reviewed and approved the financial reports for the 2006-07 fiscal year which ended 5/31/07. The statements indicated that net income was $6,266 for the fiscal year as compared to a negative balance of $899 for the prior fiscal year.

Upcoming board meetings are scheduled for: 10/29, 12/3 and 1/14/08.

PCDC Finances

PCDC manages the Dean Kenty Memorial Fund which currently contains $8599.74 (This amount is technically considered to be a long term liability.) The Portland Megaband put on another great performance this year and $1,246.43 was donated to the Dean Kenty Fund by attendees of that dance. The fund is available to PCDC members in the form of scholarships to help offset the cost of dance camps, music camps/workshops and callers' workshops. For more information about applying for a scholarship, contact one of your PCDC board members.

If you have any questions about PCDC's financial picture, feel free to contact me. Meanwhile, the world is run by those who show up, so get involved in PCDC and make an impact.

[Rick Kimball is the PCDC Treasurer]
