Live Techno Fusion Contra Dance!!!

By Noah Grunzweig

Holy disco fever, Batman! It's time for a special Techno Contra. On March 7th, join your favorite dance friends from all around the area at Norse Hall for this special event, 7:30 to 11:00 pm.

Julie Vallimont and Noah VanNorstrand are Buddy System, and they are pioneering a new sound for techno contra. Buddy System fuses the musical worlds of fiddle tunes, improvisation, and the driving untsa-untsa of ecstatic electronic dance music to create a transcendent dance experience. Will Mentor is the perfect match for this duo and a well-known contra (and square) dance caller from Northern Vermont known for his clear teaching, upbeat wit, and relaxed stage presence.

On their website for Buddy System, Noah and Julie said they are "especially excited for the Portland, OR techno contra. Those folks know how to throw an amazing party." Dress in whites and other black light sensitive gear. We'll have glow sticks, fun lights and junk food (punch and donuts). Bring your enthusiasm, so we can dance the night away to a reasonable-hour-of-eleven!

Band: Noah VanNorstrand (fiddle, foot percussion, didgeridoo, vocals & awesomeness) is known for his playing with The Great Bear Trio, one of the hottest and most influential dance bands in the country, as well as the Andrew and Noah Band and Giant Robot Dance. His driving rhythm, epic dynamics, creativity, and uniquely rocking style have given him a loyal following.

Julie Vallimont (computer, piano, synths, accordion, jawharp, & amazingness) performs nationwide with the bands Nor'easter, Firecloud and more. She is known for her driving piano style, skill in matching tunes to dances and music with heart. Julie is the pioneer of this new live form of techno contra.

Caller: Will Mentor (wit, vocals, teaching, and masterliness) started calling contra and square dances at the Jefferson County Fairgrounds, in Fairfield, Iowa at 8 pm on January 7, 1995. Since then he has called dances, dance weekends, and week-long dance camps all over the United States, Canada and Denmark. Now based in Northern Vermont, Will is known for his clear teaching, upbeat wit and relaxed stage presence.

Northwest Passage 2015

PCDC's Labor Day Dance & Music Camp

By Rich Goss, Northwest Passage Committee Chair

Okay, so it hasn't been too dreary this 'winter.' But that doesn't mean we shouldn't be thinking about making plans for the end of summer. Specifically, one of the most exciting lineups we've ever had for Northwest Passage this coming Labor Day weekend. PCDC's Northwest Passage Dance and Music Camp, taking place Sept 4-7, will once again be held on the beautiful slopes of Mt. Hood. We hope you will plan to join 130 or so of your friends, old and new, for terrific dancing, exciting music, great food and camaraderie.

Flyers with registration forms will be emailed to PCDC members in early May and will be available for download at www.NWPassageDanceCamp.org. In order to hold down costs, we will not be snail-mailing flyers, but hard copies will be available at local dances. Partial grants for the weekend are available for PCDC members. Go to <http://portlandcountrydance.org/pcdc-grants/> for more information.

This year Northwest Passage will feature all contra dancing with two exciting bands and callers!

Providing the music for this year's Northwest Passage weekend is local favorite Joyride, with Erik Weberg, George Penk, Jeff Kerssen-Griep, and Sue Songer. Also playing, from New England, the ever dynamic band Notorious. This is the full-blown version of the band with Eden MacAdam Somer, Larry Unger, Sam Bartlett, and Mark Hellenberg.

We welcome Lisa Greenleaf, also from New England, and Jeremy Korr, from Southern California, as our callers. Lisa and Jeremy, as well as all the musicians, have considerable experience and have energized the dance floor for a number of years. To add to the weekend, Beth Gibans will again be providing us with excellent meals and snacks, and John Oorthuys will keep dancers and musicians happy with wonderful sound.

Lisa Greenleaf delights dancers across the country with her high-spirited, witty calling and is known for precise walk-throughs of zesty and flowing dances. Whether she is presenting New England contras, squares, or couple dances, Lisa engages the crowd with her humor and community spirit.

Lisa calls regularly in the Boston and New England areas and has been a staff member at dance camps and festivals throughout the country including Pine-woods, the NEFFA Festival, Pig Town Fling, the Gypsy Moon Ball, Echo Summit, Seattle's Wanna Dance, May Madness and Harvest Moon. She has also called at weekends and festivals in Canada, Denmark and England. A talented choreographer too, Lisa has written a number of now classic contra dances.

Joyride is a contra dance band of friends from Portland, Oregon, that plays for contra dances, dance camps, weekends and festivals. Take a ride with these longtime Portland contra dance musicians as they lock into four-wheel turbo-drive at the top of the hall. Known for tight ensemble work, skilled play, inventively arranged tune sets and high energy, Joyride features great melodies and harmonies over strong, sweet rhythms. George Penk's propulsive, soaring fiddle joins Erik Weberg's deft flute, harmonica, & bombarde, Sue Songer's heartbeat piano and Jeff Kerssen-Griep's muscular guitar & percussion to play dance tunes from the British Isles, New England, Appalachia, and French Canada, as well as close to home and surprising points beyond. For nearly a decade now, Joyride has been hosting excellent regional and national callers at their own monthly "First Wednesday" contra dance. The band works hard to create a great experience for everyone, every time; and smiles while doing it. Expect to grin, flow, levitate, swing and howl!

George Penk has delighted dancers with his fiddle for many years, playing with bands such as Jigsaw, Night Owl, Full Circle, and now Joyride. George is also a high school science teacher and bee keeper. He teaches tunes by ear to aspiring musicians.

Jeff Kerssen-Griep, playing guitar and percussion, provides the driving rhythm for Joyride. He also plays in the wildly popular band Wild Hair. When not playing music, he shapes young minds as a professor of Communication Studies.

Erik Weberg, besides being an amazing flutist, is also a nationally known caller of contra and English country dance. Erik plays regularly for contra and ECD and is involved in producing (and calling) the annual Portland Megaband Dance. In his spare time, he is an industrial engineer.

Sue Songer plays piano and is also half of dynamic twin fiddles with George on some tunes. She is well-known in the folk music publishing world as one of the co-editors of The Portland Collection, a series of tune books owned by virtually every contra musician. She plays with several bands in the Northwest and occasionally in California and New England. She has been a tutor at The American Festival of Fiddle Tunes and has played dance weeks and weekends up and down the West Coast. Sue is also founder and director of the Portland Megaband.

[Next issue: Jeremy Korr and Notorious.]

PCDC Board Meeting Minutes

Submitted by Mary Devlin

December 15, 2014. Present: Mary Devlin, Carmen Doerge, Rich Goss, Sarah Goss, Jon Neff, Tina Tau, Mike Voss. Guests: Kim Appleberry, Laurel Thomas.

Officer's Report: Carmen confirmed that the letter of warning regarding behavior was received.

Treasurer's Report: Sarah went over the Profit and Loss Statement and balance sheet. She will send a condensed P&L statement to Laurel for publication in Footnotes and there will be a "contact" link on the website for those who would like more detailed financial information. All necessary forms for the IRS, State of Oregon and CDSS were filed on time. She will do 1099's in January.

ECD Ball Committee: Dave Macemon is the new chairperson. The committee will meet in January to choose the 2015 ball leader.

Contra Committee: The committee is discussing whether parents who bring their children to play in the 5th Saturday open band should pay admission.

There was a discussion about the value of techno contras. It was stated that the intention is to attract new young dancers, however it is unclear how many come and whether they return. Mary suggested advertising the dance at colleges and universities in the area. Tina will ask Megan to do so.

Tina will be leaving the Contra Committee after Megaband, thus a new chair will be needed as well as a new board rep.

There will be no Dusk Til Done Dance in 2015. Attendance has been low and it's hard on the committee members who have to stay until the end to clean up. Instead there will be a regular contra dance at Fulton that evening. The PCDC annual meeting will therefore not be held at Dusk Til Done; it will probably be held at the June 13th contra dance.

Raindance: Kim reported that an ad for the weekend has been placed in the Country Dance & Song Society newsletter. Registration will open January 1st. The talent for Raindance 2015 will be callers Seth Tepfer and Diane Silver, and bands Lift Ticket and The JEMS. Caller Rick Mohr has been booked for 2016.

The board approved Christine Appleberry as a member of the Raindance Committee. Other committee members are: Kim Appleberry (chair) and Greg Jackson. The committee does not have a treasurer and one is needed.

Northwest Passage: The committee is meeting next on December 22nd. Rich Goss agreed to do publicity, in addition to serving as committee chair. The 2015 focus is on contras. Staff will be Lisa Greenleaf, Jeremy Korr, Joyride, and Notorious.

Laurel (Footnotes editor) suggested that the old PCDC brochure be updated to a new, 4x6 event card with an enticing photo on the front and website and other information on the verso. All agreed. Jon will take the lead and Laurel volunteered to help.

It was suggested that it would be useful to have dancer feedback on PCDC contra dances i.e. callers, bands, and venue. Mary said that the English dance already has a feedback system. Tina agreed to talk to the Contra Committee about creating a suggestion box with cards to fill out.

Kim Appleberry requested that PCDC reimburse him for the money he's personally paid for Raindance expenses from 2011 to date. Kim said that he stopped doing any accounting after the first three years of Raindance, which is why he didn't ask for reimbursement.

Raindance reports to the board never indicated any money owed and therefore PCDC financial reports have been incorrect for the past four years. Board members felt blind-sided and expressed a lot of displeasure and concern. Kim assured the board that this would not happen again.

PCDC will set up a Raindance account within the PCDC Chase account, just as it does for every other PCDC sub-group. In addition, a budget will be required from Raindance organizers for all future events.

The board met in executive session (without guests) at the end of the meeting. After discussion, the board voted 5 to 2 to reimburse Kim for Raindance expenses back to 2011 for which he has receipts. Kim is to submit the receipts to Ed. Kim also reported having incurred additional expenses unrelated to Raindance. He's put money into the PCDC bulk mail permit and he paid for a gift card. He requested reimbursement and the board agreed.

Behavior and Safety Policy: there is a box kept at Fulton that contains everything needed to set up for the contra dance including the No Weapons sign, various flyers and other items. The sign will be posted at every dance.

The English Country Dance Committee has obtained permission from the owners of the Burlingame Water Tower Hall to post the No Weapons sign at dances there as well.

The Northwest Folklife Committee has requested a donation to support their work. The board approved sending a $100 donation.

[Next PCDC Board meeting: April 7, 6:30 pm.]

Events in Switzerland

"Since shutting down in early 2013, the most powerful particle accelerator on the planet, the Large Hadron Collider (LHC), has been sitting dormant. Over the past two years this scientific colossus situated at CERN near Geneva, Switzerland, has undergone a series of repairs and upgrades. But now it is ready to reawaken from its slumber." -- Paul Jackson, Australian physicist on the imminent, and perhaps ominous, reactivation of the LHC which will occur in March of 2015. You have been warned!
