Fifteen Glorious Years! The 2007 English Country Ball

By Peggy Hansen

Get your dance shoes and your most festive outfit ready for a very important English Country Ball on Saturday, November 3rd, as the Portland Ball celebrates its fifteenth anniversary. The ball and workshop will be held, as last year, at the historic old Portland landmark, the Oaks Park Dance Pavilion.

English dance differs from contra in that each dance has its own music, mainly written by composers of the 17th and 18th centuries, with some beautiful modern compositions as well. Special note to waltzers: the English Country Ball will feature half an hour of waltzing before the ball officially begins with country dances at 7:30.

Nan Evans will be the caller. (As it happens, she called the first Portland English Country Ball!) Music will be provided by Betsy Branch, Fred Nussbaum, George Penk and Heather Pinney.

The Saturday night ball is the highlight of a fun-filled weekend. On Friday, November 2nd, we will dance old and new favorites and greet out of town friends at Fulton Community Center. The dance begins at 7:30 PM; admission is $8 for everyone. On Saturday, November 3rd, the fun starts with a workshop to practice the ball dances at the Oaks Park Dance Pavilion from 12-2:30 PM. After a break to rest, socialize, and get ready: THE BALL! Country dances begin at 7:30 PM, with pre-ball waltzing from 7-7:30. Note that this year the ball will end at 11:00 PM. On Sunday, November 4th, direct your well-used feet to the potluck brunch and dance at the Sunlight Community Rooms, 6402 SW Barnes Rd., beginning at 10:30 AM.

This weekend is fragrance free, so please review this topic on the ECB website at <http://portlandecd.home.att.net/>.

You can learn many of the ball dances by attending the weekly Friday night English Country dances at the Burlingame Water Tower. We hope to see you there. Also, Nan will be leading three workshops on Sundays in October (10/7, 10/14 & 10/21) to concentrate on the more complex dances.

Cost for the Saturday ball and workshop is $35 per person. (Please note: it goes up to $45 this year if postmarked after October 5th). Remember, you must pre-register. This year we will offer several partial scholarships. Pick up registration forms at the weekly contra or English dances or off the ball website above. For questions about scholarships, workshops, or anything else concerning the ball, contact Chris Mullooly at mullooly@comcast.net; 503-774-6531 or Norman Hale at norman.hale@gmail.com; 503-236-8062.

Joyride First Wednesday Dance Returns in October

By Erik Weberg

The First Wednesday Joyride dance series will start its second season beginning in October, and the season will be starting off with a bang! Calling with Joyride on October 3rd will be Kathy Anderson, one of the world's most charming and skilled dance callers. Kathy is a prolific choreographer and will certainly treat us to some of her own feel-good contras and exciting squares. Kathy will be coming off a busy summer dance camp schedule and we're thrilled that she has chosen to make the Portland First Wednesday dance part of her travels this fall.

On November 7th, Susan Petrick will be calling with Joyride as the first caller to make a repeat performance in this Joyride series. Susan is an active caller, dancer and organizer in northern California and Nevada, and has toured extensively across the nation, calling at dances, weekends and festivals. We are delighted that she enjoyed our dancers last year and asked to call for us again as part of a Northwest tour.

On December 5th, David Kaynor of Montague, MA will be playing with the band while Erik Weberg handles the calling. This was an arrangement that we enjoyed a great deal last year and we're excited to have another go at it.

The Joyride First Wednesday dances are held at The Polish Hall, 3832 N. Interstate Ave. across the street from the neon-lit Palms Motel (landmark). It's right on the MAX yellow line (exit at the Overlook Park station, walk 1 block north). Dances run from 7:30 to 10:00 PM with no formal teaching session before the dance. Admission is $7 general admission; $6 students (with ID); octogenarians (and beyond) get in free. We'd like to remind folks to make this a fragrance-free event as much as possible. Please call 503-246-2219 or 503-293-1446 if you have questions.

It's Time to Register for Danceable Feast!

By Tyler Robinson

The 8th annual Danceable Feast weekend will take place November 16-18, 2007 at Sky Camp, 40 minutes southeast of Eugene. There will be contra, swing, and blues to keep you moving, feasts to keep you healthy and dance community friends to keep you connected. Contra dance to regulars Wild Asparagus with George Marshall calling; dance swing and blues to The Creighton

Lindsay Band, back by popular demand. Swing and blues instruction by Mark Green and Mary McLeod, also back from last year, and fresh-cooked food by the inimitable feast-masters, Annie Johnston and her colorful crew. Cost: $167 per adult ($177 after Sept. 30), $90 for kids 2-10 years ($95 after Sept. 30), children under 2 free. To be placed in the registration lottery, mail application forms postmarked September 10 through 17 to Ellen Cantor at 1290 W. Broadway, Eugene, OR, 97402. Go to www.danceablefeast.com for complete information and application forms, or look for flyers with forms at local dances. Contact Tyler Robinson, 503-452-7304 or tr@pcez.com with questions.

PCDC Halloween Ball

By Kim Appleberry

Halloween comes early to Fulton this year. Please join us on Saturday, October 27th for the annual PCDC Halloween Ball. Explore your inner pirate, drag out that ancient prom dress, or, if you want to go scary, how about a Paris Hilton or Britney Spears mask? (Just don't forget your underwear!) Discover the inner yearnings of your fellow dancers, find out how many flashing lights can be incorporated into one costume and if you're lucky, you can marvel at a walking, talking shower stall, complete with washee. There will be refreshments, and prizes for costumes.

Music will be provided by The Contra Rebels from Seattle with calling by Gordy Euler (ever seen Gordy in his Captain Ahab get-up?) So dress up and come bob for clams at the PCDC Halloween Ball.

Calling All Callers

By Kim Appleberry

PCDC has been sponsoring a series of callers' roundtables – meetings of callers and would-be callers – to exchange knowledge, tricks, stories and disasters. The next meeting will be on Saturday, September 29th, at 3:00 PM at the home of Kim & Christine Appleberry (7017 SW 7th) and will be led by Woody Lane. David Kaynor's book Calling for Beginners by Beginners will be available for $12. Not by accident, that night is the Fifth Saturday open mike dance, the perfect time to put your new found skills into practice. Callers new and old are welcome as well as those who would just like to observe. The meeting is free.

For more information contact Woody Lane at woody@woodylane.com or call 541-440-1926. For directions, call Kim at 503-319-1717.

Waltz Eclectic Moves to Fulton

Submitted by Nancy Matela

Thursday evening Waltz Eclectic sessions, formerly held at the Sellwood Community Center, will be held at the Fulton Community Center starting in September. Dances start at 7:30 and end at 10 PM, with a half hour lesson taught by Gerhardt Quast the first Thursday of every month. Dance to eclectic CD music with DJ Dennis Myers; admission $4.

In September, Waltz Eclectic will be sponsoring two special events. On Saturday Sept. 1st, Waltz Eclectic favorites, Larry and Eden, aka Notorious, return to Portland for a special evening of waltzes, swing, polkas and more. Dancing is from 7-11 PM at Norse Hall; $15 at the door. On Sunday Sept. 9th, the season's final Waltz in the Park will take place at the Laurelhurst Park tennis courts from 10-12; CD dancing by Dennis Myers; $4. A potluck brunch follows the dance.

Sunday Waltz Brunches continue indoors on 9/16 and 10/28 at Norse Hall. CD dancing by Dennis Myers; lesson from 10:30 to 11:30; dancing 'til 2 PM; $7 includes refreshments.

Upcoming Events

September 7-9: Sisters Folk Festival in Sisters, OR. Celebration of American music: folk, blues, bluegrass, Appalachian, etc. Also, children's stage with open mike. Info: www.sistersfolkfestival.com/

September 14-16: Cascade Zydeco's Annual Dance Camp at Camp Howard near Sandy, OR. Lessons, dancing, meals. Info: www.cascade-zydeco.com

September 18-23: Over The Water Hurdy-Gurdy Festival & Dance in Port Townsend, WA. For aficionados of the hurdy-gurdy and their friends. Info: www.overthewater.org/festival/

October 5-7: Lady of the Lake Dance Camp in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. (see page 3)

October 19-21: Wannadance Uptown in Seattle, WA. Contras, squares, English country and couples dancing along with northern and southern jams, fiddle and back-up workshops, and some singing, too. Features callers Erik Weberg & Lisa Greenleaf, and bands Foghorn & Night Watch. Info: www.wannadance.org

Oregon Dance Fair is Back

By Meg Green

The Oregon Dance Fair is a three day event with live music, dance performances, lessons, workshops, competitions and social dancing. All this will happen September 28-30, at five venues in Portland, most of which are within walking distance of each other. The majority of events will take place at Norse Hall (111 NE 11th Ave), including a contra dance on Sunday from 2-5 PM in the Lodge Room upstairs. The caller will be Mary Devlin with music by George Penk and Heather Pinney.

The first ever Oregon Dance Fair took place last year and was quite successful, so it will be back bigger and better this year. The event was organized by a young lindy and swing teacher named Larry Peacock and although its focus was predominantly swing and ballroom dancing, Larry wanted to include contra dancing too, so he asked PCDC for help. Kim Appleberry recalled that PCDC was able to recruit some 25 regular contra dancers to achieve a critical mass of experienced dancers for ODF's contra dance. This worked well since attendees were otherwise experienced dancers who simply had never tried contra before. "I danced with a girl who was as lost as any beginner in a hay but I put her into a twirl and she would zip off three perfect Black & Decker spins" recalled Kim. He added, "In the following weeks I did see some of the people from that dance at regular contra dances, which is why PCDC chose to participate in this event: outreach and exposure."

Last year, over 3000 dancers participated and about double that is expected this year. And the ODF has grown in many other areas: there will be 15 social dances with 7 live bands. Lesson tracks will include tango, salsa, ballroom/waltz, lindy hop and swing, offered by local instructors. Advanced instruction will be available by audition. For more information, contact Larry Peacock at 503-957-3369 or check the website at www.oregondancefair.com.

Folk Alliance Conference

By Lauren Sheehan

The fourth annual conference of Folk Alliance Region - West will be held November 2-4, at the Hilton Vancouver in Vancouver, Washington. FAR-West exists to foster and promote traditional, contemporary and multicultural folk music, dance and related performing arts in the western parts of North America. FAR-West seeks to strengthen and advance organizational and individual initiatives in folk music and dance through education, networking, advocacy and professional development. The conference will feature workshops, panels, seminars, an exhibit hall, jam sessions and concerts. There will also be a contra dance and an old-time dance which may be open to the public. For more information, go to: <http://www.far-west.org/conference.html>

Lady of the Lake Fall Camp

By Kathy Bowman

Spokane Folklore Society's Lady of the Lake Fall Music and Dance Camp will take place on the weekend of Oct 5-7, 2007. We hope you can join us for a great contra dance weekend with two hot bands. The Figments, consisting of Ethan Hazzard-Watkins, Anna Patton, and Owen Morrison, will be joining us from New England. This young band grew up in the contra dance tradition and continues to delight dance audiences with their improvisation, clear melodies, and solid rhythms. Night Owl, with local favorite George Penk joined by Betsy Branch and Mark Douglass, will travel from Portland to provide a great dancing experience. Linda Leslie, a New England native, and our own Eric Weberg will return to call the dances. Workshops will take place during the day in fiddle, band, singing, contra dance, couple dance and much more.

The camp takes place on beautiful Lake Coeur D'Alene in Idaho and is sponsored by the Spokane Folklore Society. The cost is $160 which includes dinner on Friday through breakfast on Sunday. Join us for a fine weekend of music, dance, jamming, hiking and hanging out on the porch.

Fulton Fundraising Event

By Kim Appleberry

On Saturday September 29th there will be a fund raising event to benefit Fulton Park Community Center. It will take place at the FCC and will involve stuffing the runners' packets for the Portland Marathon. We are asking for volunteers to come help with the stuffing during either the morning shift or the afternoon shift. It's easy work and you will be earning funds for Fulton to purchase equipment for the center.

To sign up, contact Malea at 503-223-6698. Be sure to tell her you're a Fulton Park Community Center volunteer, so that Fulton gets the proper credit for your help. And thanks for helping to keep Fulton open.

Square Dancing for Everyone

Square dance to your heart's content every first Thursday at McMenamin's Kennedy School in NE Portland. Dances are called by the lovable Bill Martin with music provided by the nationally known Foghorn Stringband. The band features tight instrumental work and a line-up (fiddle, banjo, mandolin, bass and guitar) reminiscent of early bluegrass, but their powerful approach is whole-heartedly old-time, centered largely by the fiddle. The next dance is on September 6th from 7-11 PM; admission is free. The Kennedy School is located at 5736 NE 33rd Ave, just north of Killingsworth. Dress is casual and children are welcome, especially during the first hour. Beer and pizza available for purchase.

CALENDAR • September-October 2007

www.PortlandCountryDance.org • www.kluberg.com/folknews.html

Note: Unless otherwise noted all contra dances begin at 7:30 PM with a 30 minute teaching session, and end at 11 PM. All English country dances begin at 7:30 and end at 10:30 PM.
